

Kid's In Discipleship Leadership Training

What is it? K.I.D. Leadership Training is 4 days of intensive training to equip you to direct Kid's In Discipleship in your home church.

When is it? K.I.D Leadership Training will be offered again in 2009, April 23-26 and October 7-10, starting at 14:30 on Thursday and ending with lunch at 12:30 noon on Sunday.

Where is it? The K.I.D. Leadership Training will be held at Stanborough Church in Watford, England.

How do we register and what are the requirements? K.I.D Leadership Training is designed to prepare teams to introduce and lead K.I.D. in their home church.

1. Each team must include four persons consisting of the pastor and three lay-leaders.
2. Prior to registration, conduct the congregation and church board surveys.
3. Fill in the application form with the results of the surveys, the names of your team members, their email address and a financial guarantee from the union treasurer. (Survey's and application forms can be obtained from the Union Children's Ministries department.)
4. Send the application to Anne-May Wollan, Trans-European Division, 119 St. Peter's St., St. Albans, Herts. AL1 3EY, England, or by email to: amwollan@ted-adventist.org .
Dead line for applying is February 20 (for April) and August 7 (for October), 2009.
5. Churches who meet the above mentioned requirements qualify for enrolment. Once your team has been accepted for the training the church team leader has to confirm participation to the above address and the registration is then binding and the fee non-refundable.
6. The full amount of the registration fee should then be transferred through the church channels to the Trans-European Division no later than March 13/September 28, 2009.

What is the Cost? For a team of 4 persons the Registration fee is £1100. This includes instruction plus the following for each member of the team: Training Notebook, Sample lessons as well as meals and accommodation during the training period. If a fifth person joins your team the additional cost will be £275.

Prices are subject to change.
